

Habib University
Job Description

Position Title	Assistant Manager Software Development
Department	Information Technology
Reporting Relationship	Sr. Manager Business Computing

Scope of the Position

Assistant Manager Software Development is purely a programming role and incumbent will be responsible to design, develop, integrate, upgrade, support and deploy customized web and console applications & solutions using primarily Microsoft .net, MS SQL Server, Crystal Report and BI Publisher.

Summary of Key Functions

- Responsible to deliver across the entire application life cycle – Concept, Requirement, Design, Build, Integrate, Deploy, Test, Host and Support.
- Development, Modification and Support of existing web application <http://eapplication.habib.edu.pk>.
- Query and Report Development
- Serve as a liaison and facilitator between all business units to assist in addressing and resolving new requirements and changes in the existing application and new applications development.
- Troubleshoot technical and functional issues and identify modifications needed in existing applications to meet changing user requirements.
- Continues performance optimization of web applications and databases is required
- Training and support of end users
- Applications Monitoring, Source controlling and Hosting Management

Required Qualification, Experience and Skills

Qualification	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • BCS/BS/BE degree in Software Engineering or Computer Science. • Microsoft certifications would be added benefit
Experience	Minimum 3 years of relevant practical demonstrable experience.
Skill Required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experience in developing web-based applications using .net frame work • Experience in (C#, ASP.NET, MVC, AJAX, , jQuery, link, API's) • Experience in Crystal Report Writer and BI Publisher. • Experience of Web applications Deployment using IIS. • Able to develop rich web interfaces with HTML5, CSS3 and JavaScript. • Hand on experience of web services using SOAP and XML • Database design using MS SQL Server 2008/ 2012. • Experience of creating responsive and cross platform designs • Working knowledge of API's usage, development and integration with other applications is highly desirable. • Strong analytical and problem solving skills. • Self-motivated with the ability to prioritize, meet deadlines, and manage changing priorities • Proven ability to be flexible and work hard, both independently and in a team environment, in a high pressure on-call environment with changing priorities. • Willingness to work occasionally outside of normal business hours. • Willingness to work in other programming tools like Oracle PeopleSoft People Code. • English oral and written communication skills. • A results oriented individual who thrives working in a fast paced environment. • Experience of mobile app development will be a plus • Experience of PHP will be a plus • Experience of Oracle PeopleSoft will be a plus • Experience of Microsoft Azure will be plus • Experience of SAP will be a plus