WHO CAN ENROLL FOR THE SUMMER PROGRAM 2015?
Students who fall under the following categories may only enroll for the Program:

- Students who have been offered and accepted an admission to Habib University for the Class of 2019.
- Students who have been offered an admission to Habib University but they have not yet enrolled.

WHAT COURSES ARE OFFERED AT THE SUMMER PROGRAM 2015?
Summer Program 2015 offers the following courses.

Course Name: Enhancing English Language Skills
Course Description: Students enrolled in this course will read a variety of texts across disciplines – classic and contemporary literature, science, social science, and history – and work on daily exercises designed to develop their abilities to express ideas and opinions about those texts. Section work will focus on improving writing skills, group discussion, public speaking, and reading strategies to become more efficient readers and to develop more comfort participating actively in class discussion and presenting projects. Texts to be read include Jane Eyre, The White Tiger, and Outliers: The Story of Success.

Duration: Four Weeks
Dates: July 23 to August 20, 2015
Days: Monday to Friday
Timings: 9:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Course Name: Problem Solving with Computers
Course Description: This Course will give incoming students the opportunity to brush up on their programming even before classes start. Hone your skills and familiarize yourself with the computing resources and faculty available at Habib. Students will get practical programming experience through four modules:

- Introduction to Problem Solving
- Using flowcharts to represent problem solutions
- Programming 1: Programming in a visual programming language (Scratch)
- Programming 2: Programming in a high level programming language (Python)

Duration: Four Weeks
Dates: July 23 to August 20, 2015
Days: Two days a week (Days will be identified later on)
Timings: 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.
HABIB UNIVERSITY’S SUMMER PROGRAM 2015

COURSE NAME: URDU LIKHNA PARHNA
Course Description: A basic introduction to reading and writing in Urdu, intended primarily for those students who have difficulty in these areas and require handholding prior to going into more intensive course work at Habib University as part of Jahan-e-Urdu Mandatory Course. The course will engage students in reading assignments, composition and group exercises.

Duration: Two Weeks
Dates: July 23 to August 6, 2015
Days: Three days a week (Days will be identified later on)
Timings: 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.

COURSE NAME: GHAZAL AUR GHALIB
Course Description: This course is intended to familiarize students with classical Urdu poetry with a special focus on the Ghazaliat of Ghalib, including new material recently made available on-line. Through reading and discussion, students will be encouraged to explore this rich body of literature which they may not have looked into due to lack of familiarity with the language and underlying concepts of Ghalib’s work.

Duration: Two Weeks
Dates: August 10 to August 20, 2015
Days: Three days a week (Days will be identified later on)
Timings: 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m.
