

Scholarship Application for the Academic Year 2017-18

Habib University not only encourages excellence but also rewards high achieving students in realizing their goals of a quality higher education by offering merit based scholarships. These are awarded on the basis of overall merit assessed at the time of admission. All scholarships are awarded irrespective of an applicant's religious, ethnic, racial, gender or socio-economic background. All the Scholarships awarded at the time of admission are for Four years provided the students will maintain the required cumulative GPA every semester.

Types of Scholarships

Distinguished YOHSIN Scholarships

These are full scholarships available for exceptionally well-rounded and high merit students. At Habib University, being a Distinguished YOHSIN Scholar is the highest honour for incoming students.

Habib Excellence Scholarships

These scholarships are available to students who demonstrate an overall high merit and potential. These cover 60% to 80% of tuition and fee of the recipients.

Habib Merit Scholarships

These are awarded to the students who demonstrate good academic merit. These scholarships cover 35% to 50% of tuition and fee of the recipients.

Note: You just need to apply for scholarship. The category of scholarship will be determined by the Office of Scholarship and Financial aid based on your overall merit determined at the time of admission.

How are Scholarships Determined?

The Scholarships awarded by Habib University at the time of admissions are not determined just on the basis of High School Grades.

Key factors that contribute in determining the eligibility of students for the Scholarship and its amount include the following

- Grades obtained in high/higher secondary schools
- Performance in Habib University's Entrance Examination/SAT Scores
- Communication skills including writing
- Thoughtfulness about self and the society
- Passion and initiatives taken for community service, and participation in diverse activities such as sports, poetry, performing arts, visual arts, etc.

Annual Renewal of Scholarships

All scholarships are automatically renewed each semester up to a total of four years of study, provided the conditions listed are met:

- The student stays enrolled as a full-time student, unless the University has approved part-time enrolment;
- The student maintains a minimum cumulative GPA (CGPA) of 3.5 for the YOHSIN scholarship, 3.0 for the Habib Excellence Scholarship and 2.75 for Habib Merit scholarships
- The student is on good conduct standing and has not violated any conduct policy.
