READ to LEAD

“THE WORLD BELONGS TO THOSE WHO READ”

– Rick Holland

We at Habib University Library and Information Commons believe that Reading is not a habit, it's an addiction. We are excited to bring to you an opportunity to interact and learn about pleasures of reading literature and how it impacts one's heart, mind and soul.

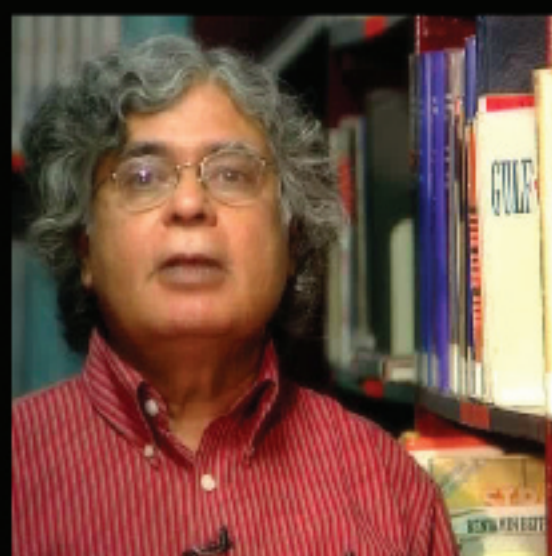

Join us and meet eminent personalities, get to know stories, insights and ways to fall in love with literature and reading. Get to know about must read books in a lifetime and listen to our guests share their favorite reading excerpts. Spend an evening to become a companion of a community of bookworms and avid readers.
