

LEADERSHIP FOR AN INCLUSIVE WORLD

ABOUT THE TALK:

A leadership talk by Sadaffe Abid, co-founder CIRCLE Pakistan, sharing key leadership lessons from her extensive experience of leading social change and incorporating Harvard's Adaptive Leadership framework. This talk will look at what it means to have an inclusive world and why it matters - inclusion boosts the bottom line!

ABOUT THE SPEAKER:

Sadaffe Abid is co-founder and CEO at CIRCLE. Prior to this, she managed Kashf Foundation as CEO and COO, one of Forbes Top 50 microfinance institutions which she helped grow from a pilot in two rooms to serve 300,000 women clients in Pakistan. Sadaffe completed her Masters at the Harvard Kennedy School, Advanced Management Program at INSEAD and her B.A. at Mount Holyoke College. She is a recipient of the Mount Holyoke Alumni Achievement Award.

DATE: WEDNESDAY MARCH 1ST, 2017

TIMINGS: 5.30PM – 6.30PM

VENUE: SOORTY LECTURE HALL

Register at: <https://habib.edu.pk/sse-public-lecture/>

CIRCLE

ABOUT CIRCLE PAKISTAN:

Led by Sadaffe Abid, CIRCLE Pakistan's mission is to advance women's economic participation and empowerment through innovative entrepreneurship and leadership labs, advocacy campaigns and research. It strives to develop and support the entrepreneurial and leadership capacity of women and youth in Pakistan to bring about economic growth and social change.