Announcement of Music Faculty Positions
Comparative Humanities Program
School of Arts, Humanities & Social Sciences

The School of Arts and Social Sciences (AHSS) at Habib University invites applications for open rank faculty positions for Music in its Comparative Humanities Program (CH) program. Depending on the credentials, candidates will be considered at Assistant Professor or Associate Professor ranks as appropriate.

The program seeks talented faculty who are passionate about teaching and student learning, and who are excited about the challenge of teaching Ethnomusicology, Composition, Creative Practice, Music Theory, Musicology, and Performance Practice at the undergraduate level in line with global developments in the field. Habib University seeks outstanding student mentors who will be involved in the lives of students through mentoring, student support, enrolment initiatives, and other activities related to the undergraduate educational experience.

Fall appointments begin August 1st and Spring appointments begin January 1st.

Qualification: A completed Ph.D. in Music – broadly defined to include Musicology, History of Music, Anthropology of Music, and other areas. While the area of specialization for this position is open, candidates are expected to have competence in the area of World Music, in particular, South Asian, Middle Eastern, African, Central Asian, and associated forms of hybridity. The ideal candidate will possess excellent teaching and scholarly skills, will be able to work with a diverse population of students and colleagues, will enjoy influencing the intellectual growth of their students, will be effective in institutional service, will be passionate about undergraduate research and is excited to work with colleagues across disciplines. Experience studying in and/or working in a liberal arts environment will be an advantage.

Responsibilities: Primary responsibilities include: teaching undergraduate courses, active engagement in institutional service, professional activities, student mentorship, and curriculum planning and review. The annual teaching load is 5 three- or four-credit courses. The candidate hired for this position will be expected to play an active role in organizing and leading events for the Centre of South Asian Music.

Once onboard, faculty should also anticipate supporting the Habib Liberal Core, a core component of our Liberal Arts education containing four foundational divisions - Humanities; Natural Sciences, Mathematics, and Computing; Social Sciences; and Language, Expression, and Design. As part of this commitment to a student-centric, interdisciplinary curriculum. Faculty members in Music are expected to contribute to the teaching and delivery of HLC courses within division of Language, Expression and Design; working collaboratively with colleagues to ensure curricular coherence, academic rigor, and an equitable learning experience for all students.

About Habib: Habib University is Pakistan's first and only exclusively undergraduate-focused liberal arts University that leverages the American style of undergraduate education and has developed a distinctive world-class liberal arts curriculum that is contextually relevant and grounded to our South Asian context and heritage. Located in the world's third-largest city - Pakistan's highly affordable, cosmopolitan, diverse, and intellectual capital of Karachi, The University prides itself on the quality and dedication of its increasingly diverse international faculty – a majority of whom hold advanced degrees from leading global institutions. The University also enjoys close connections with several prominent institutions of higher education in the U.S., including the Claremont Colleges, Stanford, UC Berkeley, the University of Michigan, UT Austin and Texas A&M.

Habib University has been granted “Candidate for Accreditation” status by the New England Commission of Higher Education (NECHE), the federally recognized accrediting body for some of the world's most distinguished universities, including Harvard University, MIT, Brown, Dartmouth, Amherst, and Williams College.
